

THE MODERN HARDWARE STORE

JUST A WORD

about a few summer necessities; the season is well advanced, but still if you do not already possess any of the following articles you will find service for several weeks for next season—but best of all you can save money by buying now.

GAS AND OIL STOVES, REFRIGERATORS, WATER COOLERS, ICE CREAM FREEZERS, HAMMOCKS.

Foot & Shear Co.
119 N. Washington Ave

L. R. D. & M.

KANGAROO AND CALF.

contribute their hides to the production of some of the fine shoes we are selling at half price during our August sale. We are agents for the "Stanton" and "Johnston & Murphy" shoe lines; "Wichita" & "Gardiner," Hart's, Gray's, and the "Chimby" shoe for ladies.

LEWIS, RUDDY, DAVIES & MURPHY
330 Lackawanna Avenue.

DR. TAYLOR, DENTIST,
121 Wyoming avenue, next door to Hotel Jermyn. Residence, 130 Sanderson avenue. Experienced, practical, scientific. No complaints against charges or work.

Lackawanna "THE" Laundry.
268 Penn Avenue. B. WARMAN

PERSONAL

Rev. J. B. Feeley, of Nicholson, was a visitor to Scranton yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Foots have returned from their vacation spent at Glenwood.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Walsh and daughter, Margaret, of Brooklyn, N. Y., are visiting friends in this city.

Hon. John Scheuer, Jr., and family are visiting the family of John Veith, of Maplewood, for a few weeks.

Miss Grace Barbour, of this city, is spending the summer at Ashbury Park before attending college in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Kirkpatrick and son, of Clay avenue, have returned from a vacation spent at Preston Park.

Mr. and Mrs. George T. Harvey and son, George, have returned home after a fortnight visit at Black, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving McCormack and sons, Howard, George and Francis, are registered at the Columbia, Lake Ariel.

Mrs. W. A. Gray, of 210 Jefferson avenue, is entertaining Mrs. Prebble and Miss Annie De Lais, of New York city.

Mrs. W. J. Hopeman, of West Pittston, is being entertained by Mrs. Irving McCormack at the Columbia, Lake Ariel.

John M. Lamey, sexton of St. Peter's cathedral, has returned from a two weeks' visit in Maryland and Atlantic City.

Mrs. Jacob Christophel, of Prescott avenue, has recently undergone a critical operation at the Scranton Private hospital, is recovering slowly.

Mrs. L. T. Maties is enjoying at Ocean Grove, Jersey, after spending a few days in Scranton, where her wife and two children are visiting the summer.

Mrs. A. C. Salisbury, wife of the division superintendent of the Lackawanna railroad, returned to the city yesterday from a pleasure trip through New York state and the Thousand Islands.

NOT LONG AT LIBERTY.

Divorced One Day and Gets Married the Next.

One of the nine libellants granted divorces Monday was Fred M. Van Dervoort, of Peckville, who showed to the satisfaction of Judge Archibald that his wife, Jessie Robinson Van Dervoort, "ran around and played in operas" and was now living in Philadelphia with another man.

Yesterday morning Mr. Van Dervoort appeared at the clerk of the courts' office with Miss Mary Parsons, of Wyoming, and, securing a marriage license, hastened off again to take on the marital yoke.

He is 40 and his new bride is 25. His first marriage occurred May 15, 1882. He was deserted eight years later.

Y. M. C. A. FUND GROWING.

Over $199,000 Has Now Been Subscribed.

The Young Men's Christian association building fund is rapidly nearing the $200,000 mark, $1,165 having been received yesterday by Secretary George G. Mahy. This makes a total of a little over $199,000 out of a required $210,000.

Just as soon, however, as an even $200,000 is subscribed, and this should be within the next week, a meeting of the directors will be held and the contract awarded. Secretary Mahy said yesterday that he believed a great part of the work on the building could be done before winter sets in.

Waldron's Horse Sale.

Waldron will be in Scranton tomorrow with a first-class carload of good horses for all purposes. The sale will occur at Gorman's Washington avenue stables at 2 p. m.

Read the full description of The Tribune's Educational Contest on fourth page.

A NEW MAGAZINE.

It is Called Kleon and (Will Make Its Appearance Today.

The Tribune is in receipt of the advance sheets of one of the most unique publications that has ever come to our notice. It is in the form of a twenty-four page magazine, and is a triumph of the printer's art.

Kleon is its name, and its scope is best explained by quoting from Mrs. Helen D. Gates' article, which closes as follows:

"So we ask of 'Kleon,' what is to be gained? The answer comes. It is not a mere repetition of the daily newspaper; it is not a copy of some other magazine; it is not a gossip, but it is a local literary effort aiming to bring out latent talent in our city for the good of all.

"We will, no doubt, be surprised at the modest business men who can write most readable articles on local history or current events, or on practical success in life.

"And we shall be no less pleased with the bright words of some of our women, who with home care and charitable work yet find time for much reading and writing.

"The tendency to rushing out activity and to impatient seeking for immediate results may need its antidote in calmer thinking and more careful attention to detail.

"We therefore wish success to this venture, hoping it may serve to add pleasure to the quiet hours of our families; may give suggestive help to young men and women who are not yet experienced in the art of writing; may put an element of deeper thought into our business and political life, and a sweeter touch into our society.

"The first article is 'Success,' by W. A. Gray, which no young business man can afford to leave unread. It is a strong, inspiring article from a man of experience to the city's youths.

"The table of contents is: 'Success,' W. A. Gray; 'Our Valley' (poem), P. Durkan; 'Our First Library,' Hon. E. Merrifield; 'Kleon,' Helen D. Gates; 'Women in the Professions,' (anecdotal side), Dr. Anna C. Clarke; 'Philosophy of Eternity,' 'The Shirt-Waist Man,' (poem), 'Our Vacation,' (story), illustrated, 'Foe's Position in American Literature,' 'Announcements for September.' Kleon is published today.

POLICE OFFICER SHOT BY PRISONER

James Golden, of Dunmore, Will Probably Die as the Result of Wounds Inflicted by Long.

Patrolman James Golden, of the Dunmore police force, was shot and seriously injured last night by Tony Long, a miser at No. 1 shaft, who escaped in the confusion following the shooting, and has not been yet discovered.

Frank Long, a Dunmore barber, and brother of Tony Long, has been arrested, accused of complicity in the crime.

Golden was removed to the Lackawanna hospital and early this morning was reported to be in a very critical condition. Three shots were fired, two of them taking effect. One entered in his left hip and the other lodged in the abdomen.

The fracas occurred at 9:45 o'clock in front of Anthony Dominick's saloon, on Chestnut street. Golden was patrolling his beat and hearing the sounds of a quarrel going on in the place entered and found a group of men engaged in a loud altercation. Tony Long seemed to be the cause of the disturbance and Golden attempted to remove him, placing him under arrest.

Together they left the saloon, the crowd of men following them. On the street Long started a furious resistance, and the crowd closed in upon the officer and his prisoner.

Golden rushed to the assistance of his brother and Golden was forced to use his club in self-defense, striking Tony Long across the face with it. Long wrenched himself loose from the officer's grip, there was a flash of steel in his hand, and the next instant there was a sharp report followed by another, and another, and Golden fell to the ground with a cry. Two bullets lodged in his body and the blood flowing freely.

All men present made an immediate rush to his assistance, and in the general excitement which followed, Tony Long, holding a smoking revolver in his hand, and accompanied by his brother, sprang over a fence and disappeared on a narrow alley.

Golden was lifted up and carried into McCarthy's grocery store, which is across the street from Dominick's saloon. His wounds were staunch and physicians summoned. Doctors Garvey and Stanton, of Dunmore, responded and attended to the wounded man as easy as possible. He did not lose consciousness, but every effort to speak pained him, and it could be readily seen that he was in a very bad way.

Dr. Garvey, when asked about Golden's condition said: "He is in a very critical state. At present it is impossible to say just what will be the result. His pulse is good, but, nevertheless, the wounds are of a very serious nature and may result fatally." About 11:40 o'clock the Lackawanna hospital ambulance arrived and the wounded man was removed to that institution.

About an hour after the shooting occurred Frank Long was arrested at his home on Chestnut street by Patrolman O. P. Higin, of the Dunmore police, and was taken to the borough jail. He offered no resistance and would give no information regarding his brother's whereabouts.

Frank Long has only been in the country a short time, but his brother has lived in Dunmore many years and bears a very good reputation. He is one of the musicians of the Roma band and has always been known as a peaceful-law-abiding citizen. He is married and lived on Willow street.

Golden is a married man and has five children. He is one of the recent additions to the Dunmore force.

Chief of Police Robling was notified of the shooting and, with City Detective John Moir, was on the scene of action late last night. A careful search failed to reveal any traces of Long and the hunt will be resumed today. All the railway stations were watched last night and all possible avenues of escape guarded. It is supposed that friends in Dunmore are keeping him in hiding and will continue to conceal him until the excitement partially cools down, when they will try to get him out of the city.

Long is about 5 feet 8 inches in height and weighs 160 pounds. He wears a heavy black mustache and is a fairly good-looking man. He was well dressed last night, wearing a plain black suit. The blow struck him on the face bruised it badly and will probably leave marks.

THE RESOLUTIONS.

The Democracy of Lackawanna county, in convention assembled, declares its undeviating devotion to the principles of government by the people created by the framers of the constitution, the immortal founder of the Democratic party, as applied to the stirring issues of the present day.

It reaffirms the platform adopted by the Democratic National convention at Kansas City on July 4, 1896, and firmly believes in the sentiment embodied in that platform, involving, as it does, the fundamental principles of the Democratic party, and the people's rights, William Jennings Bryan, its president, and that sage statesman, Adlai E. Stevenson, for vice-president, as well as the excellent nomination for state officers and the Democratic convention at Harrisburg and the nominees of this convention. We confidently expect their triumphant election November 6th next.

It deplores the evidence of a lack of sturdy Americanism on the part of the Republican factional administration, as displayed in such humiliating diplomatic humiliations as the Samoan arrangement, the withdrawal of the United States from the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, and the provisional surrender to Great Britain of a territory of Alaska greater in area than the state of Rhode Island, which had been the property of the United States for thirty years, and which was particularly shameful the hauling down of the American flag from over the heads of American citizens in the American consulate at London, when we are asserting sovereignty by force over an alien people of a different civilization in the Orient, and extrajurisdiction.

It arraigns the Republican party of Lackawanna county for its failure to support the Democratic party and charges the Republican party specifically with full responsibility for the calamitous contest for the office of county treasurer, which, though pending for three years, will far from being closed, will add a burden of $120,000 to the already overtaxed people of the county.

It commends the American citizenry for their last county convention, of that distinguished lawyer and able and honest jurist, the late Hon. Frederick W. Gunner, and recognizes the honor which is reflected upon his party by the wisdom and discretion which he displayed in the performance of his judicial duties.

The convention had now reached the order of nominating candidates, and Chairman O'Neill said that they would listen to nomination for additional law judges. Attorney E. C. Newcomb was recognized by the chair and nominated

THE RESOLUTIONS.

The Democracy of Lackawanna county, in convention assembled, declares its undeviating devotion to the principles of government by the people created by the framers of the constitution, the immortal founder of the Democratic party, as applied to the stirring issues of the present day.

It reaffirms the platform adopted by the Democratic National convention at Kansas City on July 4, 1896, and firmly believes in the sentiment embodied in that platform, involving, as it does, the fundamental principles of the Democratic party, and the people's rights, William Jennings Bryan, its president, and that sage statesman, Adlai E. Stevenson, for vice-president, as well as the excellent nomination for state officers and the Democratic convention at Harrisburg and the nominees of this convention. We confidently expect their triumphant election November 6th next.

It deplores the evidence of a lack of sturdy Americanism on the part of the Republican factional administration, as displayed in such humiliating diplomatic humiliations as the Samoan arrangement, the withdrawal of the United States from the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, and the provisional surrender to Great Britain of a territory of Alaska greater in area than the state of Rhode Island, which had been the property of the United States for thirty years, and which was particularly shameful the hauling down of the American flag from over the heads of American citizens in the American consulate at London, when we are asserting sovereignty by force over an alien people of a different civilization in the Orient, and extrajurisdiction.

It arraigns the Republican party of Lackawanna county for its failure to support the Democratic party and charges the Republican party specifically with full responsibility for the calamitous contest for the office of county treasurer, which, though pending for three years, will far from being closed, will add a burden of $120,000 to the already overtaxed people of the county.

It commends the American citizenry for their last county convention, of that distinguished lawyer and able and honest jurist, the late Hon. Frederick W. Gunner, and recognizes the honor which is reflected upon his party by the wisdom and discretion which he displayed in the performance of his judicial duties.

The convention had now reached the order of nominating candidates, and Chairman O'Neill said that they would listen to nomination for additional law judges. Attorney E. C. Newcomb was recognized by the chair and nominated

THE RESOLUTIONS.

The Democracy of Lackawanna county, in convention assembled, declares its undeviating devotion to the principles of government by the people created by the framers of the constitution, the immortal founder of the Democratic party, as applied to the stirring issues of the present day.

It reaffirms the platform adopted by the Democratic National convention at Kansas City on July 4, 1896, and firmly believes in the sentiment embodied in that platform, involving, as it does, the fundamental principles of the Democratic party, and the people's rights, William Jennings Bryan, its president, and that sage statesman, Adlai E. Stevenson, for vice-president, as well as the excellent nomination for state officers and the Democratic convention at Harrisburg and the nominees of this convention. We confidently expect their triumphant election November 6th next.

It deplores the evidence of a lack of sturdy Americanism on the part of the Republican factional administration, as displayed in such humiliating diplomatic humiliations as the Samoan arrangement, the withdrawal of the United States from the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, and the provisional surrender to Great Britain of a territory of Alaska greater in area than the state of Rhode Island, which had been the property of the United States for thirty years, and which was particularly shameful the hauling down of the American flag from over the heads of American citizens in the American consulate at London, when we are asserting sovereignty by force over an alien people of a different civilization in the Orient, and extrajurisdiction.

It arraigns the Republican party of Lackawanna county for its failure to support the Democratic party and charges the Republican party specifically with full responsibility for the calamitous contest for the office of county treasurer, which, though pending for three years, will far from being closed, will add a burden of $120,000 to the already overtaxed people of the county.

It commends the American citizenry for their last county convention, of that distinguished lawyer and able and honest jurist, the late Hon. Frederick W. Gunner, and recognizes the honor which is reflected upon his party by the wisdom and discretion which he displayed in the performance of his judicial duties.

The convention had now reached the order of nominating candidates, and Chairman O'Neill said that they would listen to nomination for additional law judges. Attorney E. C. Newcomb was recognized by the chair and nominated

THE RESOLUTIONS.

The Democracy of Lackawanna county, in convention assembled, declares its undeviating devotion to the principles of government by the people created by the framers of the constitution, the immortal founder of the Democratic party, as applied to the stirring issues of the present day.

It reaffirms the platform adopted by the Democratic National convention at Kansas City on July 4, 1896, and firmly believes in the sentiment embodied in that platform, involving, as it does, the fundamental principles of the Democratic party, and the people's rights, William Jennings Bryan, its president, and that sage statesman, Adlai E. Stevenson, for vice-president, as well as the excellent nomination for state officers and the Democratic convention at Harrisburg and the nominees of this convention. We confidently expect their triumphant election November 6th next.

It deplores the evidence of a lack of sturdy Americanism on the part of the Republican factional administration, as displayed in such humiliating diplomatic humiliations as the Samoan arrangement, the withdrawal of the United States from the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, and the provisional surrender to Great Britain of a territory of Alaska greater in area than the state of Rhode Island, which had been the property of the United States for thirty years, and which was particularly shameful the hauling down of the American flag from over the heads of American citizens in the American consulate at London, when we are asserting sovereignty by force over an alien people of a different civilization in the Orient, and extrajurisdiction.

It arraigns the Republican party of Lackawanna county for its failure to support the Democratic party and charges the Republican party specifically with full responsibility for the calamitous contest for the office of county treasurer, which, though pending for three years, will far from being closed, will add a burden of $120,000 to the already overtaxed people of the county.

It commends the American citizenry for their last county convention, of that distinguished lawyer and able and honest jurist, the late Hon. Frederick W. Gunner, and recognizes the honor which is reflected upon his party by the wisdom and discretion which he displayed in the performance of his judicial duties.

The convention had now reached the order of nominating candidates, and Chairman O'Neill said that they would listen to nomination for additional law judges. Attorney E. C. Newcomb was recognized by the chair and nominated

THE RESOLUTIONS.

The Democracy of Lackawanna county, in convention assembled, declares its undeviating devotion to the principles of government by the people created by the framers of the constitution, the immortal founder of the Democratic party, as applied to the stirring issues of the present day.

It reaffirms the platform adopted by the Democratic National convention at Kansas City on July 4, 1896, and firmly believes in the sentiment embodied in that platform, involving, as it does, the fundamental principles of the Democratic party, and the people's rights, William Jennings Bryan, its president, and that sage statesman, Adlai E. Stevenson, for vice-president, as well as the excellent nomination for state officers and the Democratic convention at Harrisburg and the nominees of this convention. We confidently expect their triumphant election November 6th next.

It deplores the evidence of a lack of sturdy Americanism on the part of the Republican factional administration, as displayed in such humiliating diplomatic humiliations as the Samoan arrangement, the withdrawal of the United States from the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, and the provisional surrender to Great Britain of a territory of Alaska greater in area than the state of Rhode Island, which had been the property of the United States for thirty years, and which was particularly shameful the hauling down of the American flag from over the heads of American citizens in the American consulate at London, when we are asserting sovereignty by force over an alien people of a different civilization in the Orient, and extrajurisdiction.

It arraigns the Republican party of Lackawanna county for its failure to support the Democratic party and charges the Republican party specifically with full responsibility for the calamitous contest for the office of county treasurer, which, though pending for three years, will far from being closed, will add a burden of $120,000 to the already overtaxed people of the county.

It commends the American citizenry for their last county convention, of that distinguished lawyer and able and honest jurist, the late Hon. Frederick W. Gunner, and recognizes the honor which is reflected upon his party by the wisdom and discretion which he displayed in the performance of his judicial duties.

The convention had now reached the order of nominating candidates, and Chairman O'Neill said that they would listen to nomination for additional law judges. Attorney E. C. Newcomb was recognized by the chair and nominated

THE RESOLUTIONS.

The Democracy of Lackawanna county, in convention assembled, declares its undeviating devotion to the principles of government by the people created by the framers of the constitution, the immortal founder of the Democratic party, as applied to the stirring issues of the present day.

It reaffirms the platform adopted by the Democratic National convention at Kansas City on July 4, 1896, and firmly believes in the sentiment embodied in that platform, involving, as it does, the fundamental principles of the Democratic party, and the people's rights, William Jennings Bryan, its president, and that sage statesman, Adlai E. Stevenson, for vice-president, as well as the excellent nomination for state officers and the Democratic convention at Harrisburg and the nominees of this convention. We confidently expect their triumphant election November 6th next.

It deplores the evidence of a lack of sturdy Americanism on the part of the Republican factional administration, as displayed in such humiliating diplomatic humiliations as the Samoan arrangement, the withdrawal of the United States from the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, and the provisional surrender to Great Britain of a territory of Alaska greater in area than the state of Rhode Island, which had been the property of the United States for thirty years, and which was particularly shameful the hauling down of the American flag from over the heads of American citizens in the American consulate at London, when we are asserting sovereignty by force over an alien people of a different civilization in the Orient, and extrajurisdiction.

It arraigns the Republican party of Lackawanna county for its failure to support the Democratic party and charges the Republican party specifically with full responsibility for the calamitous contest for the office of county treasurer, which, though pending for three years, will far from being closed, will add a burden of $120,000 to the already overtaxed people of the county.

It commends the American citizenry for their last county convention, of that distinguished lawyer and able and honest jurist, the late Hon. Frederick W. Gunner, and recognizes the honor which is reflected upon his party by the wisdom and discretion which he displayed in the performance of his judicial duties.

The convention had now reached the order of nominating candidates, and Chairman O'Neill said that they would listen to nomination for additional law judges. Attorney E. C. Newcomb was recognized by the chair and nominated

THE RESOLUTIONS.

The Democracy of Lackawanna county, in convention assembled, declares its undeviating devotion to the principles of government by the people created by the framers of the constitution, the immortal founder of the Democratic party, as applied to the stirring issues of the present day.

It reaffirms the platform adopted by the Democratic National convention at Kansas City on July 4, 1896, and firmly believes in the sentiment embodied in that platform, involving, as it does, the fundamental principles of the Democratic party, and the people's rights, William Jennings Bryan, its president, and that sage statesman, Adlai E. Stevenson, for vice-president, as well as the excellent nomination for state officers and the Democratic convention at Harrisburg and the nominees of this convention. We confidently expect their triumphant election November 6th next.

It deplores the evidence of a lack of sturdy Americanism on the part of the Republican factional administration, as displayed in such humiliating diplomatic humiliations as the Samoan arrangement, the withdrawal of the United States from the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, and the provisional surrender to Great Britain of a territory of Alaska greater in area than the state of Rhode Island, which had been the property of the United States for thirty years, and which was particularly shameful the hauling down of the American flag from over the heads of American citizens in the American consulate at London, when we are asserting sovereignty by force over an alien people of a different civilization in the Orient, and extrajurisdiction.

It arraigns the Republican party of Lackawanna county for its failure to support the Democratic party and charges the Republican party specifically with full responsibility for the calamitous contest for the office of county treasurer, which, though pending for three years, will far from being closed, will add a burden of $120,000 to the already overtaxed people of the county.

It commends the American citizenry for their last county convention, of that distinguished lawyer and able and honest jurist, the late Hon. Frederick W. Gunner, and recognizes the honor which is reflected upon his party by the wisdom and discretion which he displayed in the performance of his judicial duties.

The convention had now reached the order of nominating candidates, and Chairman O'Neill said that they would listen to nomination for additional law judges. Attorney E. C. Newcomb was recognized by the chair and nominated

HARD TASK TO SECURE CANDIDATES

Odd Problem That Confronted Democratic Convention.

TICKET THEY NOMINATED

It Is the One Forecast in Yesterday's Tribune with the Exception of Jury Commissioner—D. J. Campbell Was Decided Upon for That Office When It Seemed That a Tangle Must Ensnare Unless Something Was Done—Norton and Law Nominated to Fill Gaps in the Ticket. Resolutions Adopted.

It was a difficult task the Democratic county convention had before it yesterday.

Ordinarily trouble in a convention arises out of the fact that there are too many candidates for the offices. Yesterday the trouble was of the opposite kind and concentrated their strength on former County Treasurer D. J. Campbell.

The latter had no ambition in the way of jury commissioner and was only induced to accept it after the leaders had impressed upon him the necessity of securing the nomination of a reputable, representative man for the office.

NO NOMINEES.

When the convention reached the point where nominations for clerk of the courts and prothonotary were in order, no one wanted the nominations, and after some hesitation, "Thomas Law and Matthew P. Norton" were named to fill up the ticket. They were the candidates for these offices three years ago and were defeated. Both have had the nominations under consideration for some time, but refuse to put anything in the way of assessments or even give a definite answer as to their acceptance. Norton left the city for his home in Carbondale at noon yesterday. "If you want to give me the nomination, may-be I'll accept it," he said to the leaders.

Law has given no positive assurance that he will run, even if the matter of assessment is eliminated.

It was the latest, tamest Democratic convention ever held in the county. There was no enthusiasm, no cheering. The best hand of the day was accorded to M. E. Conry when he was nominated for congress, and when he appeared before the convention to accept the nomination, he carried into McCarthy's grocery store, which is across the street from Dominick's saloon. His wounds were staunch and physicians summoned. Doctors Garvey and Stanton, of Dunmore, responded and attended to the wounded man as easy as possible. He did not lose consciousness, but every effort to speak pained him, and it could be readily seen that he was in a very bad way.

Dr. Garvey, when asked about Golden's condition said: "He is in a very critical state. At present it is impossible to say just what will be the result. His pulse is good, but, nevertheless, the wounds are of a very serious nature and may result fatally." About 11:40 o'clock the Lackawanna hospital ambulance arrived and the wounded man was removed to that institution.

About an hour after the shooting occurred Frank Long was arrested at his home on Chestnut street by Patrolman O. P. Higin, of the Dunmore police, and was taken to the borough jail. He offered no resistance and would give no information regarding his brother's whereabouts.

Frank Long has only been in the country a short time, but his brother has lived in Dunmore many years and bears a very good reputation. He is one of the musicians of the Roma band and has always been known as a peaceful-law-abiding citizen. He is married and lived on Willow street.

Golden is a married man and has five children. He is one of the recent additions to the Dunmore force.

Chief of Police Robling was notified of the shooting and, with City Detective John Moir, was on the scene of action late last night. A careful search failed to reveal any traces of Long and the hunt will be resumed today. All the railway stations were watched last night and all possible avenues of escape guarded. It is supposed that friends in Dunmore are keeping him in hiding and will continue to conceal him until the excitement partially cools down, when they will try to get him out of the city.

Long is about 5 feet 8 inches in height and weighs 160 pounds. He wears a heavy black mustache and is a fairly good-looking man. He was well dressed last night, wearing a plain black suit. The blow struck him on the face bruised it badly and will probably leave marks.

SWAPPED STORIES.

During this order, the delegates and spectators swapped stories, not all of which were of a political nature, and the men who were scheduled to make the nominating speeches strode up and down the corridors outside the court room and rehearsed the pieces with which they expected later on to electrify the convention. They had the laudable desire to be letter perfect in their parts.

There were no demonstrations while

THE RESOLUTIONS.

The Democracy of Lackawanna county, in convention assembled, declares its undeviating devotion to the principles of government by the people created by the framers of the constitution, the immortal founder of the Democratic party, as applied to the stirring issues of the present day.

It reaffirms the platform adopted by the Democratic National convention at Kansas City on July 4, 1896, and firmly believes in the sentiment embodied in that platform, involving, as it does, the fundamental principles of the Democratic party, and the people's rights, William Jennings Bryan, its president, and that sage statesman, Adlai E. Stevenson, for vice-president, as well as the excellent nomination for state officers and the Democratic convention at Harrisburg and the nominees of this convention. We confidently expect their triumphant election November 6th next.

It deplores the evidence of a lack of sturdy Americanism on the part of the Republican factional administration, as displayed in such humiliating diplomatic humiliations as the Samoan arrangement, the withdrawal of the United States from the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, and the provisional surrender to Great Britain of a territory of Alaska greater in area than the state of Rhode Island, which had been the property of the United States for thirty years, and which was particularly shameful the hauling down of the American flag from over the heads of American citizens in the American consulate at London, when we are asserting sovereignty by force over an alien people of a different civilization in the Orient, and extrajurisdiction.

It arraigns the Republican party of Lackawanna county for its failure to support the Democratic party and charges the Republican party specifically with full responsibility for the calamitous contest for the office of county treasurer, which, though pending for three years, will far from being closed, will add a burden of $120,000 to the already overtaxed people of the county.

It commends the American citizenry for their last county convention, of that distinguished lawyer and able and honest jurist, the late Hon. Frederick W. Gunner, and recognizes the honor which is reflected upon his party by the wisdom and discretion which he displayed in the performance of his judicial duties.

The convention had now reached the order of nominating candidates, and Chairman O'Neill said that they would listen to nomination for additional law judges. Attorney E. C. Newcomb was recognized by the chair and nominated

THE RESOLUTIONS.

The Democracy of Lackawanna county, in convention assembled, declares its undeviating devotion to the principles of government by the people created by the framers of the constitution, the immortal founder of the Democratic party, as applied to the stirring issues of the present day.

It reaffirms the platform adopted by the Democratic National convention at Kansas City on July 4, 1896, and firmly believes in the sentiment embodied in that platform, involving, as it does, the fundamental principles of the Democratic party, and the people's rights, William Jennings Bryan, its president, and that sage statesman, Adlai E. Stevenson, for vice-president, as well as the excellent nomination for state officers and the Democratic convention at Harrisburg and the nominees of this convention. We confidently expect their triumphant election November 6th next.

It deplores the evidence of a lack of sturdy Americanism on the part of the Republican factional administration, as displayed in such humiliating diplomatic humiliations as the Samoan arrangement, the withdrawal of the United States from the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, and the provisional surrender to Great Britain of a territory of Alaska greater in area than the state of Rhode Island, which had been the property of the United States for thirty years, and which was particularly shameful the hauling down of the American flag from over the heads of American citizens in the American consulate at London, when we are asserting sovereignty by force over an alien people of a different civilization in the Orient, and extrajurisdiction.

It arraigns the Republican party of Lackawanna county for its failure to support the Democratic party and charges the Republican party specifically with full responsibility for the calamitous contest for the office of county treasurer, which, though pending for three years, will far from being closed, will add a burden of $120,000 to the already overtaxed people of the county.

It commends the American citizenry for their last county convention, of that distinguished lawyer and able and honest jurist, the late Hon. Frederick W. Gunner, and recognizes the honor which is reflected upon his party by the wisdom and discretion which he displayed in the performance of his judicial duties.

The convention had now reached the order of nominating candidates, and Chairman O'Neill said that they would listen to nomination for additional law judges. Attorney E. C. Newcomb was recognized by the chair and nominated

THE RESOLUTIONS.

The Democracy of Lackawanna county, in convention assembled, declares its undeviating devotion to the principles of government by the people created by the framers of the constitution, the immortal founder of the Democratic party, as applied to the stirring issues of the present day.

It reaffirms the platform adopted by the Democratic National convention at Kansas City on July 4, 1896, and firmly believes in the sentiment embodied in that platform, involving, as it does, the fundamental principles of the Democratic party, and the people's rights, William Jennings Bryan, its president, and that sage statesman, Adlai E. Stevenson, for vice-president, as well as the excellent nomination for state officers and the Democratic convention at Harrisburg and the nominees of this convention. We confidently expect their triumphant election November 6th next.

It deplores the evidence of a lack of sturdy Americanism on the part of the Republican factional administration, as displayed in such humiliating diplomatic humiliations as the Samoan arrangement, the withdrawal of the United States from the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, and the provisional surrender to Great Britain of a territory of Alaska greater in area than the state of Rhode Island, which had been the property of the United States for thirty years, and which was particularly shameful the hauling down of the American flag from over the heads of American citizens in the American consulate at London, when we are asserting sovereignty by force over an alien people of a different civilization in the Orient, and extrajurisdiction.

It arraigns the Republican party of Lackawanna county for its failure to support the Democratic party and charges the Republican party specifically with full responsibility for the calamitous contest for the office of county treasurer, which, though pending for three years, will far from being closed, will add a burden of $120,000 to the already overtaxed people of the county.

It commends the American citizenry for their last county convention, of that distinguished lawyer and able and honest jurist, the late Hon. Frederick W. Gunner, and recognizes the honor which is reflected upon his party by the wisdom and discretion which he displayed in the performance of his judicial duties.

The convention had now reached the order of nominating candidates, and Chairman O'Neill said that they would listen to nomination for additional law judges. Attorney E. C. Newcomb was recognized by the chair and nominated

THE RESOLUTIONS.

The Democracy of Lackawanna county, in convention assembled, declares its undeviating devotion to the principles of government by the people created by the framers of the constitution, the immortal founder of the Democratic party, as applied to the stirring issues of the present day.

It reaffirms the platform adopted by the Democratic National convention at Kansas City on July 4, 1896, and firmly believes in the sentiment embodied in that platform, involving, as it does, the fundamental principles of the Democratic party, and the people's rights, William Jennings Bryan, its president, and that sage statesman, Adlai E. Stevenson, for vice-president, as well as the excellent nomination for state officers and the Democratic convention at Harrisburg and the nominees of this convention. We confidently expect their triumphant election November 6th next.

It deplores the evidence of a lack of sturdy Americanism on the part of the Republican factional administration, as displayed in such humiliating diplomatic humiliations as the Samoan arrangement, the withdrawal of the United States from the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, and the provisional surrender to Great Britain of a territory of Alaska greater in area than the state of Rhode Island, which had been the property of the United States for thirty years, and which was particularly shameful the hauling down of the American flag from over the heads of American citizens in the American consulate at London, when we are asserting sovereignty by force over an alien people of a different civilization in the Orient, and extrajurisdiction.

It arraigns the Republican party of Lackawanna county for its failure to support the Democratic party and charges the Republican party specifically with full responsibility for the calamitous contest for the office of county treasurer, which, though pending for three years, will far from being closed, will add a burden of $120,000 to the already overtaxed people of the county.

It commends the American citizenry for their last county convention, of that distinguished lawyer and able and honest jurist, the late Hon. Frederick W. Gunner, and recognizes the honor which is reflected upon his party by the wisdom and discretion which he displayed in the performance of his judicial duties.

The convention had now reached the order of nominating candidates, and Chairman O'Neill said that they would listen to nomination for additional law judges. Attorney E. C. Newcomb was recognized by the chair and nominated

THE RESOLUTIONS.

The Democracy of Lackawanna county, in convention assembled, declares its undeviating devotion to the principles of government by the people created by the framers of the constitution, the immortal founder of the Democratic party, as applied to the stirring issues of the present day.

It reaffirms the platform adopted by the Democratic National convention at Kansas City on July 4, 1896, and firmly believes in the sentiment embodied in that platform, involving, as it does, the fundamental principles of the Democratic party, and the people's rights, William Jennings Bryan, its president, and that sage statesman, Adlai E. Stevenson, for vice-president, as well as the excellent nomination for state officers and the Democratic convention at Harrisburg and the nominees of this convention. We confidently expect their triumphant election November 6th next.

It deplores the evidence of a lack of sturdy Americanism on the part of the Republican factional administration, as displayed in such humiliating diplomatic humiliations as the Samoan arrangement, the withdrawal of the United States from the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, and the provisional surrender to Great Britain of a territory of Alaska greater in area than the state of Rhode Island, which had been the property of the United States for thirty years, and which was particularly shameful the hauling down of the American flag from over the heads of American citizens in the American consulate at London, when we are asserting sovereignty by force over an alien people of a different civilization in the Orient, and extrajurisdiction.

It arraigns the Republican party of Lackawanna county for its failure to support the Democratic party and charges the Republican party specifically with full responsibility for the calamitous contest for the office of county treasurer, which, though pending for three years, will far from being closed, will add a burden of $120,000 to the already overtaxed people of the county.

It commends the American citizenry for their last county convention, of that distinguished lawyer and able and honest jurist, the late Hon. Frederick W. Gunner, and recognizes the honor which is reflected upon his party by the wisdom and discretion which he displayed in the performance of his judicial duties.

The convention had now reached the order of nominating candidates, and Chairman O'Neill said that they would listen to nomination for additional law judges. Attorney E. C. Newcomb was recognized by the chair and nominated the credentials were being handed in. After the nomination of the officers of his party stepped up and handed his authority to be a member of the convention to the chairman but no notice was taken of them by the other delegates or spectators.

When "Big" Jim Dunn, of the Third district of the Sixth ward, of this city, dragged his 300 odd pounds up to the secretary's desk, there was a movement as if to give him a hand, but it died a premature death. The delegates frowned down the attempt.

The roll prepared, Colonel Fitzsimmons called for nominations for temporary chairman and Hon. J. J. O'Neill, of Carbondale, was nominated by Joseph O'Brien, of this city. He was cheerfully chosen and was greeted with applause when introduced by Colonel Fitzsimmons in a few graceful remarks. Mr. O'Neill, in taking charge of the convention, said:

"Mr. Chairman and Fellow Democrats—I thank you for the honor conferred upon me in making me chairman to preside over a convention such as this. It is at all times an honor as a leader to be called upon to preside over such a body.

"The Democracy is as old as the government. It is as young fresh and vigorous today as when the foundations of this government were laid. It is the only party that stands for the people, for the elevation of the individual, and it is opposed to the growth of any party or corporation that is consolidated against them, whether that system is of money, of class, or of race.

"Democracy means the encouragement of each individual to strive for his own advancement in the way of the good of the whole. It believes in home rule. It believes in the indivisible union of indivisible states. It is opposed to any party or corporation that seeks to separate our government without their consent. Other parties may come and go, but we hope to see take their places among the nations of men.

"We sit with pride to Jefferson, Madison, Monroe and the heroic Jackson, and we hope to see the century with one who is as illustrious as they. Let us stand together, let us be one people and champion them, William J. Bryan.

COMMITTEES NAMED.

There was a generous demonstration when the name of Bryan was mentioned. Chairman O'Neill, at the conclusion of his address, named the following committees:

Committee on Credentials—John A. Horan, Dunmore; John P. McDonald, Carbondale; M. J. Walsh, Scranton; J. S. Barham, Gouldsboro; Peter M. Gorman, Scranton.

Committee on Resolutions—Frank McGarth, Scranton; J. W. Howell, Scranton; John Bennett, Scranton; J. H. Braden, Carbondale; Thomas Scanlon, Scranton.

Committee on Permanent Organization—J. J. Tobey, Scranton; James P. Law, Taylor; August Olenchik, Troups; Paul W. Aton, Neston; M. J. Dunne, Scranton.

The acting secretaries were made secretaries of the temporary organization, and E. C. Newcomb, of this city, moved that the convention adjourn until 2 o'clock, to give the committees time to prepare their reports.

In the afternoon the crowd began to assemble in the court room as early as 1:30. Each incoming batch of delegates had some fresh story about changes that were made in the slate during the noon recess; of candidates who had dropped out of the slate; of those who had claimed themselves. On the whole, the tenor of the stories were to the effect that some difficulty was experienced in getting a slate that would hang together, even of men who were not very anxious to get into the show-makers. This caused a feeling of uneasiness and depression among the delegates.

Inability to secure candidates was surely not a sign that a victory in November was within hailing distance.

In the meantime, the perspiring leaders had their own troubles.